Foreword

As the end of another school year approaches, we think of the good times we have had at school during the past year--the pep rallies, the ballgames, the talent shows, the club initiations, the parties, the Homecoming, and the work on the newspapers and this Year's The Echo; but even as we are reminiscing, we begin to wonder what the future holds in store for us. Looking foreward to catch a glimpse, we see a star appearing in the sky and stop to make a wish!

The

Echo

1958

*Jamestown High School
Jamestown, North Carolina*

DEDICATION

The 1958 publication of The Echo is dedicated to a teacher who has helped us to keep our "star" always in sight and to attain eventually our ambitions. She is always interested in the students, whether she is helping us in class, giving advice, or sponsoring the annual each year. On behalf of the entire student body, the senior class proudly dedicates this annual to MRS. MARY LANE, without whom it would have been impossible for the annual staff to publish this year's annual.

Dedication

Although Mrs. Lane is burdened with classes and extra-curricular activities she is always ready and willing to assist a troubled student who is reaching for one of the most important stars of all, a goal in life.

Administration

Our administration and faculty have been our North Star. To you we say "thank you" for your leadership.

Senior Class Officers

Tommy Slaughter, President; Bowen Townsend, Vice-President; Patsy Bullin, Assistant Treasurer;
Peggy Kendall, Treasurer; Ann Rich, Secretary.

Senior

FAITH BLACKBURN and BILL HARRISS know their way through the encyclopedias for they are the Most Intellectual.

JANE SAFERIGHT and ALLISON WOOD are our Most Dependable whether running a mimeograph or doing some more important job.

Superlatives

A bad fall doesn't knock the wit out of PEGGY KENDALL and WALTER FORBES, the Wittiest seniors.

Whether happy or sad these two, PATSY BULLIN and HENRY GROOME, will greet you with a smile—a fact which explains why they were selected as having the Best Personalities.

Senior

PATSY CARROLL and TOMMY GORDON should be among the future fashion leaders, for they are the class's Best Dressed.

Letters for our Most Popular members, PATSY BULLIN and BOWEN TOWNSEND, keep the men at the post office very busy.

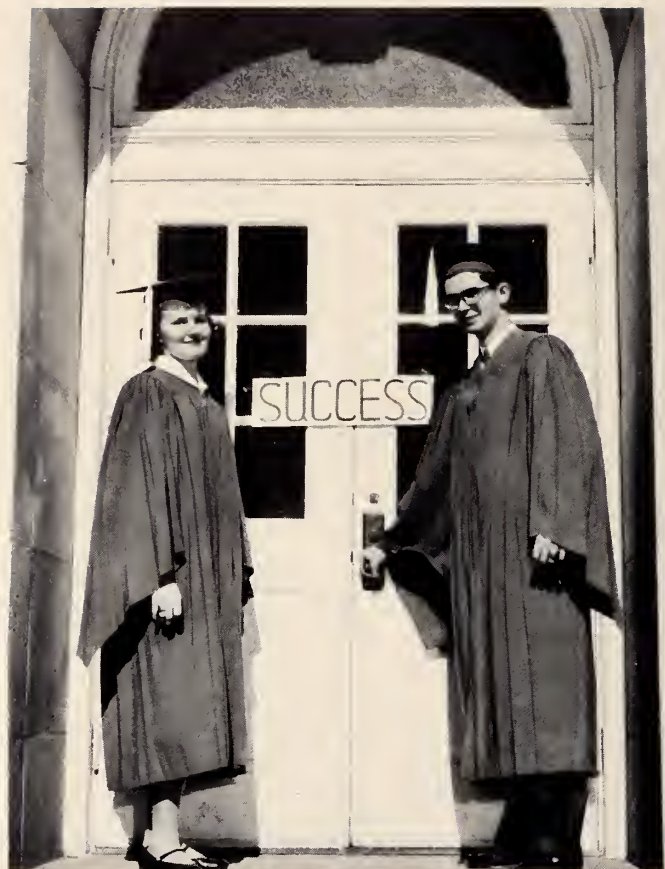

Superlatives

Watch your steadies when SUE BROWN and BOBBY TANNER are around, for they are our Biggest Flirts.

The age of chivalry isn't a thing of the past. Our Most Courteous are JANE HEDGE COCK and PHILIP GORDON.

Senior

The door of success will open easily for BILL HARRISS and JANE HEDGECK for they are the Most Likely to Succeed.

MARTHA YOW and WALTER FORBES, our Most Talented, should go far with talents as great as they possess.

Superlatives

The Most Attractive seniors, BRENDA WITCHER and LARRY CECIL, help to improve the appearance of any place, including the dance floor.

MIMI MODLIN and TOMMY SLAUGHTER are always good sports in any game and well deserve the title, the Most Athletic.

Senior

Whether talking to each other or to friends or strangers, SUE BROWN and HENRY GROOMER are the Friendliest.

Their record is tops in all fields and well pleases JANE SAFERIGHT and BOWEN TOWNSEND, our Best All Round.

Superlatives

Because VERNIE MAE CLARK and JACKIE POWELL are always getting into mischief, they were selected as our Biggest Pests.

Ready for the "most looked forward to" senior activity, PEGGY KENDALL and JAMES O'NEAL are our Most Typical Seniors.
